INTERNET SAFETY CROSSWORD

Malware, adware, viruses—so many terms, so little time. Clearly understand commonly used internet safety terms by using the clues given below to complete the crossword puzzle.

Wordbank

Cyberbullying   Firewall
Net   Password   Virus
Cybersecurity   Scam
www   Trolling   Spam
Surfing   Malware   Phishing
Netiquette   Cybercrime
Hacker   Hardware
Cyberstalking   Adware

Down

1. Someone who gains unauthorized access to people's computers.

2. A shorter word for "internet."

4. A security system used to block malicious threats to your computer.

6. Any action that's taken to protect computers and prevent online crime.

7. Self-replicating software program that attacks a computer system.

9. Software that displays unwanted advertising on your computer.

13. When someone tracks, lures, or harasses people online.

16. A dishonest scheme to get information or money.

Across

3. Software designed to damage a computer or phone.

5. Online etiquette—being nice and respectful to others online.

6. Harm inflicted through text, e-mails, or online sites.

8. Computer equipment, machines, and parts.

10. Short form for "World Wide Web."

11. A secret combination of words or numbers that allows a user to access an online service.

12. An internet-related crime.

14. An attempt to trick a person into giving away money or information by pretending to be a well-known company.

15. Leaving offensive messages on the internet.

16. Searching through websites freely.

17. Unwanted e-mails or junk mail.