

Hope for the best, but prepare for the worst. We've all heard this saying before, but it's hard to put that into practice or put a dollar amount on it. When you take the time and energy to build an emergency fund, your mind will be more at ease, and you'll be prepared when hard times come. Let the Banzai Coach help.

Protect what you VALUE

Remember the Boy Scout motto: Be prepared. No one likes to think about losing their job or unexpected medical bills, but those things happen all the time. The earlier you start financially preparing for life's obstacles, the less those obstacles will disrupt your life. The Banzai Coach, a virtual financial adviser, will take you through the basic steps of creating an emergency fund for yourself. As you tell it about your goals and finances, it responds with personal advice to help you on your way.
