

Auto Insurance

Login to Banzai, click High School Personal Finance, scroll down to the library section, and read the article “Auto Insurance.” Answer the following questions based on what you read.

1. What is the most common type of insurance that states require?

- a. Collision
- b. Comprehensive
- c. Uninsured Driver
- d. Personal Injury or Personal Liability

2. Name and define three components of auto insurance:

- a. _____
- b. _____
- c. _____

3. What kind of insurance protects you if you're hit by someone who doesn't have insurance themselves? _____

4. In your opinion, why is auto insurance important?

5. A deductible is the amount you have to pay before your insurance kicks in.

- a. True
- b. False

6. Fill in the blank: A lower deductible usually means a _____ premium.