

Critical Thinking: A Plan for College

Use this worksheet to think critically about the decisions you'll make when starting your college journey.

1. Have you considered attending any universities in your area? Why might attending a university in your home state save you money?

---

2. Would you consider living in on-campus housing while going to college? Why might this save you some money?

---

3. How might moving in with a friend benefit you financially?

---

---

4. Walking, taking the bus, and driving are three ways you can choose to get around. How do you plan to get from point A to point B while going to college? Is this the cheapest option? Why or why not?

---

---

---

5. List some reasons why someone might choose a more expensive form of transportation?
